

DEPOSITORS START RUN ON BANK

of an unfounded rumor attacking the solvency of the Pennsylvania Bank and Trust Co., at 1 and Moyamensing avenue, started a run on the bank early today. Hundreds of depositors, mostly women, formed the bank building until the police arrived and formed them into orderly lines to enter and withdraw their money.

IN HEAD FLATIRON

Near Death After Assaulted by Un- Assailant

Thought in Vain

Twenty-seven south Broad street, in a hospital in a result of being known intruder in her o'clock this morning, across the temple with skull fractured when by noise the in- man escaped through ent to bed about 10 detectives when she iness in the hospital, d about 2 o'clock by ng about in her room, bed and demanded to of the person. The quick swish of through the air. She lost consciousness.

in an adjoining room a challenge to get out of bed to in- omunicate, and from Miss Burton's woman's and jumped to the street.

id the room adjoining the intruder was a or. After seeing him rived into the hallway and occupant of the me later before Miss d. The occupants of arched the building for rders, ignorant of the n had been hurt. The occupant of her room in y knocked and called the door. When they they forced their way ound her unconscious d on the bed.

the hospital in the elth and Pine streets ans there say her re- l. Detective Belahaw, murder squad, talked what meager informa- could give no descrip- r. She could not be d she was white or a he she tell how he ent house or her room.

Election Fraud Here? Ready? Camera! Shoot!!

The debut of women as voters here tomorrow will not be the only precedent-smashing occurrence. "Movie" photographers in motor-cars are to circulate about the First Councilmanic district and film any disorders that occur. The idea is Senator Vare's. The senator said the pictures will be shown as evidence if police activity is used.

"Tipstaves darken the courtroom. Lower your head, judge, so that the jurors can see the screen!"

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS KILL 30 DURING OCTOBER

Coroner Declares Increase in Fatalities is "Ghastly"

There were thirty deaths due to automobile accidents in this city during October, an increase of four deaths over October, 1919.

Twelve of the victims were children. Coroner Knight declared the increase in auto fatalities "ghastly." He said immediate action must be taken to lessen the death rate.

He urges the enforcement of all existing regulations for motorists, and the co-operation of the public, in seeing that the regulations are enforced.

NOT DRUNK, SAYS WRIGLEY

Magistrate Denies Intoxication When Car Killed Girl

Magistrate Byron E. Wrigley today denied the assertion that he was under the influence of liquor Thursday night, when he struck with his automobile and fatally injured Miss Mary Brady, of 722 Spruce street, by the death of William E. Finley.

"I was not drunk," he repeated, "and had taken only one drink. I took this drink before I had my supper the night of the accident."

The girl was struck at Allegheny avenue and F street, where she and her escort were waiting for a car. Wrigley was arrested and put under $1500 bail for the coroner. He was held only last June 30 for killing Edward Taylor, 1648 Mentor street, with his car at Ninth street and Wyoming avenue. At that time, coroner's jury freed him of the charge.

TWO HOMES ROBBED

Robbers Get Silverware and Jewelry in West Philadelphia

Thieves entered two homes in West Philadelphia yesterday and obtained silverware and jewelry valued at $3500.

The home of Joseph Matz, at 5823 Spruce street, was robbed of $1500 worth of silverware early yesterday morning. The burglars entered through a window at the rear of the first floor. Mr. and Mrs. Matz were asleep on the second floor.

The home of Isaac C. Sutton, an attorney at law, of 5409 Overbrook avenue, was entered between 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon and 7 o'clock last night.

When members of the family returned, they found the home had been ransacked and jewelry and silverware valued at $2000 missing. The thieves made an unsuccessful attempt to force a safe on the first floor.

PROVED REGULAR CUT-UP

Chong Lu Was on Rampage and Peacemaker Got Worsted of It

When Yong Foh, a Chinese cook, tried to separate two of his friends who were fighting in the kitchen of a restaurant on Market street near Twelfth yesterday, Chong Lu, one of the fighters, is alleged to have struck him with a meat cleaver.

The blow cut Yong Foh's right arm almost in two, and at the Jefferson Hospital fifteen stitches were required to close the wound.

Chong Lu was given a hearing today before Magistrate Grella at the Eleventh and Winter streets station. He was held in $800 bail for a further hearing Thursday.

Found Dead From Gas

Andrew Ligumo, twenty-four, was found dead in a room at 420 East Rittenhouse street, Germantown, early today. Gas was flowing from an open jet, and the windows and door were closed. Police of the Germantown station, Ligumo committed suicide.

HARDING LOOKS FOR VICTORY OVER COX; ENDS CAMPAIGNING

C. O. P. Nominee Leaves Detailed Forecast to Party Managers—Enjoys Rest

ASSERTS DEMOCRATS TRY TO DECEIVE ON LEAGUE

By the Associated Press

Marion, O., Nov. 1.—His campaigning over and his final analysis of campaign issues laid before the people on a pre-election statement, Senator Harding took a rest today from the long and arduous labors of the presidential contest.

A smile answered those who asked for his prediction of the outcome of tomorrow's balloting and in place of any pre-election claim he called attention to his public utterances of the last few weeks, in which he has declared many times that he fully expected to be inaugurated next March as the nation's chief executive.

Detailed forecast of the result the nominee left to his party managers, saying that he had made his fight to the best of his ability and was ready to abide by the result.

In a final campaign statement issued last night, Senator Harding declared the election tomorrow would turn on two clearly drawn issues: The Paris League and the League of Nations. The Paris League, he said, was a "deceitful" policy. The League issue, as presented by the Democrats, said the Republican nominee, could be summed up simply in this question:

"Shall we enter the Paris League of Nations, assuming, among other obligations, the obligations of Article X?"

To this question, he said, the Democrats answered "yes" and the Republicans answered "no."

The Republican candidate asserted also that the country had answered "no," and that, in consequence, the Democrats had sought to "deceive" the people as to the real nature of the League issue by making it appear that the Republicans were opposed to any international association at all.

In domestic affairs, he declared, there was a choice between the "policy" of the Wilson policies and a definite constructive policy, "proposed in detail by the Republicans."

Nominee's Message to the People

The text of his statement to the people follows:

"Two issues are made by the voters in this campaign. One of them is the foreign policy of the United States. The other is the domestic policy of the United States."

"Between our Democratic opponent and the American people who are supporting the Republican party these issues are clearly drawn."

"Incidentally, Senator Vare and other organization men branded as false reports that gunmen would be imported into that area."

Contest in First Division

What is virtually the only contest in the city is centered in the First Councilmanic district, in which Charles J. Pommer is the Vare candidate and James Gallagher the administration candidate for the vacancy in Council caused by the death of William E. Finley.

When questioned concerning a statement made by Director Cortelyou, who said he heard that gunmen were to be sent into the Twenty-sixth ward by those opposed to the administration, Senator Vare said:

"We will not have anybody in the downtown district. They want a clean election, free from outside interference, and I am willing to abide by the verdict of the downtown voters on the result."

"This report of gunmen is being circulated as an excuse on the part of the police department to bring more police downtown, which is absolutely unnecessary. Pommer will be elected by more than 10,000 majority, Gallagher won't carry a single ward."

"I have received information that the presence of a number of gunmen is expected in the Twenty-sixth ward," Director Cortelyou said. "And I have taken steps to cope with any trouble which may arise. I cannot say now where my information came from, but I am taking no chances of it being correct. I want no repetition of the Epley case."

"I want to say now that no outside interference in a free and fair election will be allowed. I will do all in my power to protect citizens in voting."

"I have issued orders for all law-breakers to be arrested on sight, no matter what their political affiliations. All persons taken into custody for causing disorders will be dealt with summarily, and the co-operation of District Attorney Hotan, which has been assured us, along with speedy action by Common Pleas court judges, will assure swift and efficient punishment."

Pommer, Too, Has Charges

Mr. Pommer, following the example of Senator Vare, declared the reports of gunmen were utterly false. He said he is assured of enough votes without resorting to illegal or strenuous methods.

The Vare candidate had an accusation of his own to make. He asserted about thirty employees of the highway bureau have been "dismissed" and ordered to report to Moore court-marteen in the five wards of the district.

Director Caven, who has jurisdiction over the highway bureau, denied Pommer's statement.

"It is unfounded," the director said. "Such a report as that is simply one of the last card tricks of Vare supporters."

With the other wards fighting to a virtual draw, both the Vares and the

Continued on Page Two, Column Seven

IRON HAND TO CURB POLLS TERRORISM

Mayor Warns Vare Leaders Police Will Suppress Any "Strong-Arm" Work

GUNMEN RUMOR DENIED

A warning that political terrorism would be suppressed by the police with a strong hand was given Vare leaders today by Mayor Moore, who added an extra warning through reference to the Fifth ward election scandal of 1917.

The Mayor's warning was sent in a letter addressed to Councilman Hall and Councilman Cox, members from the First district, where a stiff battle will be fought tomorrow.

Incidentally, Senator Vare and other organization men branded as false reports that gunmen would be imported into that area.

What is virtually the only contest in the city is centered in the First Councilmanic district, in which Charles J. Pommer is the Vare candidate and James Gallagher the administration candidate for the vacancy in Council caused by the death of William E. Finley.

When questioned concerning a statement made by Director Cortelyou, who said he heard that gunmen were to be sent into the Twenty-sixth ward by those opposed to the administration, Senator Vare said:

"We will not have anybody in the downtown district. They want a clean election, free from outside interference, and I am willing to abide by the verdict of the downtown voters on the result."

"This report of gunmen is being circulated as an excuse on the part of the police department to bring more police downtown, which is absolutely unnecessary. Pommer will be elected by more than 10,000 majority, Gallagher won't carry a single ward."

"I have received information that the presence of a number of gunmen is expected in the Twenty-sixth ward," Director Cortelyou said. "And I have taken steps to cope with any trouble which may arise. I cannot say now where my information came from, but I am taking no chances of it being correct. I want no repetition of the Epley case."

"I want to say now that no outside interference in a free and fair election will be allowed. I will do all in my power to protect citizens in voting."

"I have issued orders for all law-breakers to be arrested on sight, no matter what their political affiliations. All persons taken into custody for causing disorders will be dealt with summarily, and the co-operation of District Attorney Hotan, which has been assured us, along with speedy action by Common Pleas court judges, will assure swift and efficient punishment."

Pommer, Too, Has Charges

Mr. Pommer, following the example of Senator Vare, declared the reports of gunmen were utterly false. He said he is assured of enough votes without resorting to illegal or strenuous methods.

The Vare candidate had an accusation of his own to make. He asserted about thirty employees of the highway bureau have been "dismissed" and ordered to report to Moore court-marteen in the five wards of the district.

Director Caven, who has jurisdiction over the highway bureau, denied Pommer's statement.

"It is unfounded," the director said. "Such a report as that is simply one of the last card tricks of Vare supporters."

With the other wards fighting to a virtual draw, both the Vares and the

Continued on Page Two, Column Seven

WORLD CONSULT AMERICA FIRST

"I want to consult America first, and take a course which will unite America and make it possible to join a world fraternity of nations, rather than a course which will divide America and make it impossible for us to do anything. A Democratic victory means a continuous deadlock with the Senate, which has been so fruitless and will be fruitless forever."

"Our opponents have asked the American people to approve their draft of a league. The American people have said 'no.' This means that the man who is elected President must set his face toward a constructive plan. I have pointed the way."

"The other issue in this campaign arises from the need of a definite constructive policy for putting our own house in order and attending to the repairs and reconstruction which eight years of Democratic mismanagement have made necessary. A little more of this mismanagement and of its wastes, follies, and extravagance will vacillating conduct would put our industry, business and agriculture on the rocks."

"The next administration will have all it can do to make these repairs. Certainly, every one's attitude toward America's future and America's export to the world requires a definite constructive program. It would be madness for us to go on as we have been going. For that reason I have stated the program of the Republican party."

"I have said we must restore con-

Continued on Page Two, Column Two

Election Fraud Rewards Offered by 70 Committee

The Committee of Seventy offers rewards aggregating $100,000 and ranging from $250 to $1000 for the detection of election frauds tomorrow.

The offer is made in a warning sent to all election officers of the city by E. I. D. Roach, secretary of the committee. Attention is called to the section of the city charter prohibiting patrolmen, firemen and police from taking an

HARDING AND COX FAVOR GUARDING OF BIRDS

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Senator Harding and Governor Cox have expressed themselves in favor of guarding the national parks and bird reservations in telegrams made public today by Pearson P. Gilbert, president of the National Association of Audubon Societies.

TURKISH IMMIGRANTS TO U. S. FUMIGATED

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Steerage passengers on the Turkish steamship Guj Djalal, which arrived here late yesterday from Constantinople, were today removed from the ship to Hoffman Island for "fumigation." Discovery by health officers of vermin necessitated this move. Recent reports from American officials in Turkey indicated that many of the passengers lacked passports.

U. S. CONSUL AT MONTREAL RESIGNS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—J. L. Rogers, United States consul at Montreal, has resigned on account of ill health, it was said today at the state department. Vice Consul Cookran is in charge at Montreal pending appointment of a permanent successor to Mr. Rogers.

NEW FARE CAUSES GREAT JAM ON "L"

Seven-Cent Rate and Four Tickets for a Quarter Present Perplexing Problem

DELAYS ON ALL LINES

P. R. T. Short of Tickets; Asks Patience of Public

The public is urged to be patient with street car conductors today. The new tariff, providing seven-cent cash fares or four tickets for twenty-five cents, went into effect this morning. The heavy demand for the tickets exhausted the first supply on many lines. Many conductors had difficulty also in getting enough pennies for change.

Thousands of car riders stood jammed four abreast on the steps leading to West Philadelphia "L" stations this morning while an extra force of ticket sellers, buried under an avalanche of small change, coped with the new and perplexing problems of the seven-cent fare, with four strip tickets for a quarter.

The same delay, accompanied with long protests from scores of passengers who were caused to be from ten to fifteen minutes late for work, took place on the surface lines all over the city.

At the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Co. offices it was said the inauguration of the new fare had slowed up service to such an extent that many complaints were received.

The new fare went into effect about 4 o'clock this morning when the day crews started their runs. Little trouble occurred until 7 o'clock, when the rush to work in the downtown section began.

Despite the well-thought-out preparations of the P. R. T. management, the rush from 7 until after 9 o'clock overwhelmed ticket sellers and conductors.

The turnstiles are expected to move faster and click more merrily and less crowding is expected during the home-ward movement this afternoon. This is because the average car rider laid in a generous supply of the coupon tickets on his initial ride this morning and will not have to wait for change on the return trip.

The demand for the new tickets exceeded all anticipations. Five million of the tickets were printed last week. When the rush to work assumed its greatest proportions this morning the supplies of tickets became exhausted and runners were dispatched from the P. R. T. Co.'s offices at Eighth and Dauphin streets with extra strips.

Conductors Are Confused

The shortage of tickets confused many conductors, who hesitated as to what they should do, and finally refused to take on any more passengers.

Thomas E. Mitten, president of the P. R. T. Co., whose straight five-cent fare plan was scrapped by the Public Service Commission in making way for the present higher fare, prepared special orders to guide employes in collecting the new rate.

"Conductors will be most careful," the order ran, "to cancel strip tickets after presentation by the car rider."

"Conductors are forbidden to sell single tickets for seven cents from a strip. Every conductor will be supplied with a uniform number of strip tickets. Emergency supplies of strip tickets can be purchased by a conductor from other conductors."

"Since the seven-cent fare involves the use of more pennies, conductors should carry several hundred more pennies than usual."

"Conductors are urged to be courteous and help car-riders as much as possible to an intelligent understanding of the new fare."

"Persons protesting against the new rate are to be referred to the company's offices at Eighth and Dauphin streets, Bell telephone number Diamond 7000 and Keystone, Park 1300."

"No conductor is at present required to sell more than $2 worth of strip tickets to one passenger."

Extra Cashiers on Hand at "L" Stations in West Philadelphia, to speed up the sale of the strip tickets this morning. In nearly every instance the rider took advantage of the four-coupon tickets for twenty-five cents feature of the new fare.

Despite the additional cashiers, the process of making change caused long lines to form in the direction of the turnstiles.

An innovation at surface intersections and junctions was the appearance of cashiers who marketed strip tickets on the street.

TEST 'BLOODSTAIN' ON BRINES' AUTO

Question Raised by Defense Delays Inquest into Murder of Student

CHEMISTS EXAMINE SPOTS

The dark stain found on a door panel of William P. Brines' abandoned motorcar is being tested by chemists and biologists to determine if it is really human blood.

Brines is in prison charged with the murder of Elmer C. Drewes, Dartmouth College student, found dead with a bullet wound in the head at Mascher street and City Line.

The blood tests, under the supervision of Dr. William S. Robinson, city chemist, were ordered by the district attorney's office when it was learned the defense would challenge the alleged fact that bloodstains were found on Brines' automobile.

The examination has delayed an inquest into the student's murder. Coroner Knight announced today he is ready to hold an inquest at once, but has postponed action at the request of the county prosecutor.

In making the tests, elaborate precautions had to be taken. The stain on the automobile door panel was scraped carefully off. A dark red stain on a stone slab in a wall near where Drewes was found also was scraped.

The scrapings, it is said, are to be injected into one or more rabbits. The life fluid of the rabbits then will be examined. The presence of human blood in the fluid of the animals, it is said, would be a strong argument against Brines' claim of a largely circumstantial. An automatic pistol found in the abandoned car was identified as the weapon bought some months ago by Brines, who is a student of Pennsylvania school.

5 THUGS ROB MAN OF $20; THIEF TAKES $24 IN CAFE

Highwaymen Escape in Motorcar After Beating Victim

Five men attacked William Kennedy, of 2360 Myrtlewood street, at Twenty-third and Wharton streets last night and robbed him of $20. They escaped in an automobile.

A thief ordered a meal in a restaurant at 3002 Chestnut street last night, and while John Brooks, the proprietor, was in the kitchen, the "customer" pried open the cash drawer and escaped with $24.

A Simon sheltered a boy who had been attacked by a juvenile gang in his grocery store at Eighth and McKean streets last night, and finally was forced to send in a riot call before the boys could be dispersed. They broke a bullet window in the store. George Trina, fourteen years old, and Tony Tugless, eighteen, both of Moore street near Ninth, were arrested by patrolmen of the Fourth street and Snyder avenue station as members of the gang.

ACCUSE REAL ESTATE MAN

Witnesses Say He Obtained Deposits on "Fake" Sales

James I. Betz, 802 South Fifty-sixth street, was held in $1000 bail today by Magistrate Carson at Central Station charged with extorting money through "fake" sales of houses.

Betz is a real estate dealer, and his most lucrative method of making money quickly, it is alleged, is through selling houses that do not belong to him.

At the hearing this morning Mrs. H. K. Kubn, 2715 Folsom street, testified she paid Betz a $800 deposit as prospective owner of a house located at 1428 North Wilton street. When she came to take possession of her new home she discovered tenants occupying it and learned that Betz had not the right to make the sale, she charged.

Mrs. Fannie Krout, of 1424 Eiting street, claimed to have paid a $1000 deposit under similar circumstances.

Mrs. Viola Purdy, 2024 Turner street, testified that she paid $150 on a house at 5122 Marion avenue when the place was not for sale.

STEAL $2000 IN JEWELS

Thieves entered the home of I. C. Sutton, 5409 Overbrook avenue, early this morning and stole $2000 worth of jewelry.

The home of Joseph J. Matz, at 5823 Spruce street, was also entered late Saturday night, and jewelry valued at $1000 taken.

ELECTION RETURNS

The PUBLIC LEDGER has installed a battery of telephones to give special service tomorrow night, election night.

Call Lombard 6300

and Lombard 6300 only for election information tomorrow night.

THE PUBLIC LEDGER

WHERE TOMORROW?

Magistrate Carson Has Right Answer to Faker's Question

Posting as a blind man, and soliciting alms from pedestrians through the added medium of pathetically worded cards, inscribed "Here today—where tomorrow?" cost Joseph McGrath three months in the House of Correction.

When arraigned before Magistrate Carson that official gave one glance at a card and another at McGrath.

"I'll know where you are tomorrow," he said.

PARTY LEADERS BOTH CONFIDENT THEY WILL WIN

Will H. Hays Claims 368, Possibly 400, Electoral Votes for Harding

DEMOCRATS HOPE FOR ELEVENTH-HOUR SWEEP

White Declares Election of Cox Would "Jail" Militarism Forever

Rival Chairmen "Claim" Big Electoral Majorities

Following are the maximum claims of electoral votes for Harding and Cox, made respectively by Chairmen Hays and White. In the list of each leader are included states which they admit are "doubtful," but refuse to concede to the opposing candidate. The total vote necessary to elect is 268. Both chairmen, it will be seen, largely exceed that number in their "claims" on the eve of election day.

CHAIRMAN HAYS CLAIMS FOR HARDING
Alabama	11
Arizona	5
California	13
Colorado	9
Connecticut	5
District of Columbia	3
Florida	9
Georgia	11
Idaho	4
Illinois	21
Indiana	15
Iowa	10
Kansas	10
Kentucky	13
Maine	5
Maryland	10
Massachusetts	11
Michigan	18
Minnesota	12
Mississippi	7
Missouri	12
Montana	4
Nebraska	8
Nevada	3
New Hampshire	4
New Jersey	14
New Mexico	8
New York	45
North Carolina	12
North Dakota	5
Ohio	24
Oklahoma	10
Oregon	5
Pennsylvania	38
Rhode Island	5
South Carolina	8
Tennessee	12
Texas	20
Utah	4
Virginia	12
Washington	12
West Virginia	12
Wisconsin	12
Wyoming	8
Total	423

CHAIRMAN WHITE CLAIMS FOR COX
Alabama	12
Arizona	5
Arkansas	9
California	13
Colorado	9
Connecticut	5
Florida	9
Georgia	11
Idaho	4
Illinois	21
Indiana	15
Iowa	10
Kansas	10
Kentucky	13
Louisiana	10
Maine	5
Massachusetts	11
Michigan	18
Minnesota	12
Mississippi	7
Missouri	12
Montana	4
Nebraska	8
Nevada	3
Total	316

By the Associated Press

New York, Nov. 1.—Both Republican and Democratic headquarters this afternoon took up the stride which will carry them in the final scene of the presidential contest tomorrow either to victory or defeat.

Both major parties asserted confidence in the election of their candidates as the last day of campaigning progressed.

Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican National Committee, reiterated today that the Republican ticket was certain to obtain 398 electoral votes in tomorrow's election, and that there was a strong possibility of the total reaching close to the 400 mark. The number required to elect is 268.

Sees Big G. O. P. Sweep

Mr. Hays did not make a formal statement, resting on his declaration of last night that "the evidence of an overwhelming Republican victory hourly increases."

George White, Democratic national chairman, declared "Cox and Roosevelt" will win.

Mr. White, in a final formal statement, said that victory for the Democratic presidential candidate will mean that "militarism goes to jail forever," and that Republican success will mean that "militarism is free to murder and pillage again."

The Democratic chairman, in his statement, also said: "There is one great decision before the American voters tomorrow—shall this nation join the league with safeguarding reservations and thus assure world peace, or shall this nation reject the league and let militarism continue to run at large?"

He asserted that the "peace of the world and progress of the United States" depend upon the votes tomorrow. He insisted that the only way to obtain the league and peace is through a vote for Governor Cox.

"We have fought an absolutely clean fight," Mr. White's statement concludes. "We have contended with honor against tactics ranging from deceitful strategy and misrepresentation to sacrilege. Throughout we have held aloft, unshaken, the banner of the League of Nations. The American people will carry it over the top tomorrow to certain victory."

Many Close Contests

Interest in the last day of the great fight centers in the final desperate attempt to bring over the "doubtful" states with large electoral votes to deliver, or to save United States senators in other doubtful states where the electoral vote is not large enough to be indispensable.

The salient example of states in the first category is Ohio, home state of the chief presidential candidate, with twenty-four votes, while the outstanding case of the second class is Nevada, with only three.

Other states where the eleventh-hour contest is intense, with both parties sanguine of success, are Arizona, Kentucky, Maryland, New Mexico, Tennessee, North Carolina and Oklahoma. All these, as well as the Buckeye state, are claimed by both Republicans and Democrats.

Second only in interest to the outcome of the voting is the subject, "What will the women do?" Leaders of both major parties disclaim possession of advance information on what is to be expected of the new class of voters, exercising their franchise in all the states for the first time.

Socialists Claim 3,000,000

The Socialist party has made claims for the largest proportion of women's vote. With the new voters properly belonging to the party added to non-Socialists who, they say, will vote ticket in protest against the imprisonment of the party's presidential nominee, Eugene V. Debs, the Socialists predict a vote of at least 3,000,000.

Continued on Page Two, Column Seven